No.2/J.C/43(B)
Intelligence Bureau, Home Department, Government of India,
New Delhi, 1st April 1943.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

After consulting us General Headquarters have issued the following instructions to Army and Command Headquarters, for the apprehension of military personnel who have entered India on behalf of the Indian National Army and are lying low in their villages:-

"When a training centre has reason to believe that a member of the Regiment has entered India as an I.N.A. agent and is hiding in his village, there is no objection to a party being sent to apprehend him.

On the other hand it is important that the local police should have the opportunity totake into Police custody and question any I.N.A. or I.I.L agent who has been at large in India, in order to obtain information of security value about his activities and associations in their area.

Whenever possible the information leading to the arrest should be passed on to the Superintendent of Police of the district either by letter or by the hand of the commander of the military escort sent to apprehend the offender, so that the Police can obtain the information they want before the accused is given into military custody.

Whenever an offender of this type is apprehended by the military without prior reference to the police, the latter should immediately be informed by the commander of the escort and given an opportunity to question the man".
